NOT STARTED BY WOMEN.

Strikers Then Shot Down by Deputies at Scottsdale, Pa., To-Day.

A SUPERINTENDENT MAY DIE.

He and the McInnes Company's Bookkeeper Badly Beaten by the Mob.

FIFTEEN PEOPLE ARE INJURED.

Region Greatly Excited and Still More Serious Trouble Feared.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 4.—A riot occurred at the plant of the McInnes Coke Company about 6 o'clock today, when the women living at the plant determined to drive the "blackies" from work. They assembled, and with tin pans, clubs, coke forks and brooms, marched to the coke yard, and White, Mine Superintendent; Edwin B.
Foddy, bookkeeper, and a lot of deputies were on guard.

A shot was fired to scare the women.
In less than a minute, the men living in the houses rushed to the scene, when White opened fire on the crowd that then numbered over one hundred.
The riot occurred between blocks of ovens and at the first fire from White and the deputies three men fell wounded. One was shot through the thigh, one through both legs and the third in the neck. It is believed the latter is hurt fatally.

The women carried off the wounded, and the infuriated men set upon White and Roddy, whom they seemed to regard as responsible for the shooting.
Before a sufficient number of deputies could be massed at this point, Sanford White was completely surrounded. He was brutally beaten over the head, knocked down, kicked and bruised about the body. His recovery is doubtful.

While all this was going on the deputies who could use their Winchester rifles did so, and managed to shoot one woman, who is said to be dying. Roddy, the bookkeeper, was one of the most injured, but he escaped with only slight bruises, and was brought here for treatment.

The doctors of town were summoned and are now caring for the wounded.
White's wounds were dressed, and he was sent to the Miners' Hospital in Connellsville.

It is now believed that a big riot had a white man down, and was standing over him with an axe, when he was knocked down by James Farr, one of the store clerks.

It is now believed that a great excitement throughout the entire region.
The strikers are becoming desperate, and are assaulting at various points to raid the plants now in operation.
The operators and leaders of the strike are being hunted times within the next few days.

RIOTOUS SILK STRIKERS.

One Arrested, but Discharged with a Caution.

The strike of the workmen of the silk factory at One Hundred and Thirty-second street and Broadway, which has been in progress for the last eleven weeks, culminated in violence last evening.

Alfred Weyling, of 121 East Eighty-second street, is one of the non-union men who went to work in the factory yesterday morning. At 8 o'clock last evening a crowd of strikers gathered about the factory, and the men who came to work were assaulted with sticks and missiles of every kind.
Weyling was struck in the ear by an egg thrown by Louis Schaub, who was caught in the act and arrested by Police Officer Cohen, of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street police station.

Mr. Kaufman, one of the proprietors of the factory, appeared in the character of peacekeeper in the Harlem Police Court this morning, and through his intercession Weyling declined to make a complaint.

Strikes then discharged the prisoner with a caution and the statement that riotous strikers would be severely dealt with if they were brought to court and the charges against them were substantiated.

Miners Quiet at Mesaba Range.

DULUTH, Minn., May 4.—All is quiet at Mesaba range. The men are at work at Mountain Iron mine, but still out at the Franklin mine, where the trouble began. The militia have not been used as yet.

Boy Run Over.

Charles Berger, nine years old, of 19 Bloomfield street, was run over this afternoon at the corner of Houston and Broadway, by a wagon driven by an unknown man. The boy's leg was fractured. He was taken to St.
John's Hospital.

COPYRIGHT GOT TIRED.

With Bergen Up He Was Easily Beaten by Comanche.

GRAVESEND, L. I., May 4.—The morning was raw and cold here and the damp air seemed to affect the horses in their work. There were no fast moves, and the only interesting work was that of Comanche, Copyright and St. Michael in a hunt.

Marty Bergen had the mount on Copyright, and the trial or race proved that Mike Daly's horse has no business with handicap horses.

Copyright cut at the end of a mile, which was run in 1.45 3-4. St. Michael was done at the end of six furlongs, which were covered in 1.18 1-2. Comanche beat the pair off their legs, and went on finishing the mile and a quarter in 2:14 1-2.

Sport, Glipin & Taylor's good colt, went to Brighton Beach and worked a mile and a quarter in 2:15 in company with "Father Bill" Daly's Lizzie.

Lowlander, on the other hand, came up from the beach, and after capering about on his hind legs in a style that would have done credit to a ballet dancer, was taken from the track without being worked. He acted very meanly.

McLaughlin's Oporto was sent five furlongs in 1:07 3-4. Werneberg covered a mile in 1:46. Wah Jim made the fastest mile of the day, five furlongs in 1:02 3-4. Tormentor went a half in 1:04, and Madstone five furlongs in 1:02 1-2.

Henry Harris sent Dr. Hasbrouck a mile in 1:43 3-4. Emlin Bay cantered a course in 1:21 1-2.

Of the Dwyer lot, Hammie worked a half mile with Amsterdam, the In-sector, B. Holt, going the distance in 0:51. Hammie is very nearly a sister brother to Kollan and the sister to Marty Bergen.

Jim Dyer worked Rola and Appomattox together a mile in 1:46 1-4, the latter doing the better work.

Pontiac, of Warnke's string, travelled a mile in 1:52 3-4. Annie Bishop was sent a mile in 1:52 3-4.

Chris Cornelissen's McIntyre worked six furlongs in 1:22, and Shelly Tuttle seven furlongs in 1:24.

W. Jennings' lot entered, as did also the string of Boyle & Littlefield, and the string of J. J. Dwyer.

"Father Bill" Daly sent his two-year-old a half in 0:51. John Campbell's string of horses, which had good gallops, Vespasian went a mile in 1:49, finishing strong.

The Ruppel lot, which had in three strings doing nothing but cantering and trotting.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

John and James Lambley, who have not been granted licenses by the Jockey Club, have been ordered to appear tomorrow at the Jockey Club, and to participate in the meeting will be debarred from the tracks of the new Jockey Club.

A bit of sad news from the track today was the announcement of the death of Trainer Frank McCabe's wife. Mr.
McCabe is very popular among his fellow trainers, and was devotedly attached to his wife.
His recovery was expressed for him.

Clifford is expected at Gravesend tomorrow. All the trainers want to have a look at him.

A Buffalo despatch says that the much-talked-of two-mile trotting match for the championship of the world between the two horses, the Greenlander (2:10 1-2) and L. H. O'Brien's Greenlander (2:10 1-2), has been arranged. A forfeit of $500 will be given to the winner.
The conditions will be best two in three for $5,000, the race to take place during the month of June.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean says: "Dir-rectum, the king of trotting stallions, will not be seen on the turf this year.
He has been ordered to stand at home, to Pleasanton, Cal., to take his place in the training stable of Hickok, he fell deadly injured, and is now recovering."

There will be great rejoicing in St.
Francis' Hospital, Brooklyn, when Dr.
Eugene Leigh has been a liberal subscriber to the hospital fund, and when he has been elected to the position of honorary member.

Mr. Underhill Wins.

Twice Drives a Coach and Four Through the Figure 8.

New York has just scored a novel victory over Philadelphia. Francis T.
Underhill, the crack New York coachman, won the water against Edward Browning, the Philadelphia whip, who said that it was impossible to describe the figure 8 with a coach and four in batteries and forehand, and the remaining rein over the little figure.

Both sides were heavily backed by friends.
A dinner will also be given by the loser.

WALBAUM MAY FIGHT.

Will Wait to See What the Washington Park Club Does.

BIG RACING WAR EXPECTED.

Talk at Gravesend of Forming a Free Horse Owners' Association.

NOTHING FOR THE POOR MEN.

Sharp Criticism of the Magnates Who Have Endeavored to Reform the Turf.

The ultimatum of the new jockey club has made Fred Walbaum, the President of the Saratoga Racing Association, the centre of all eyes.

Mr. Walbaum occupies a peculiar position, as the Saratoga Association is not a member of the new racing turfs.
As Walbaum is a fighter of known ability, many look for him to kick over the traces and precipitate a turf war that may result in the killing of the sport of kings.

An "Evening World" reporter saw Mr.
Walbaum at the new office of the Saratoga Racing Association, at 1402 Broadway.

"This thing has come on me suddenly," said Saratoga's President. "I hardly know what to say. As you know I own nearly half of the stock of the Saratoga Racing Association, and whatever my personal feelings towards the new Jockey Club may be, I may be forced into the game."

There is plenty of talk in turf circles to-day of the Jockey Club's manifesto published yesterday.
Horse owners acknowledge that the conditions of the Jockey Club are likely to elevate the turf, but they cannot accept the terms the autocrats present.

The cardinal principle set forth by the Jockey Club's rules seems to be to mulct the poor horse owners. If a light between the rich owners and the poor owners is the result of the Jockey Club's ultimatum, there is sure to be one result.
The Jockey Club will be the poorer.

There is a racing official in authority who has no chance to pay for their keep.
The majority of the owners are poor men in their calculations. There are compensations to be had, but the general run of men, in refusing to take any part in the Jockey Club, is to be the bookmaking evil the Jockey Club showed its fear of one of the most powerful of the turf.

There can be no doubt that many of the regulations which the Jockey Club has set forth are in the position of being an ultimatum to the turf, but taken in bulk the rules are not likely to be accepted by the owners, and the Jockey Club will be a living without the assistance of the blue-stocking element.
The Jockey Club is in a position to be taken with better grace if the story that one of the leading spirits in the turf has been killed in a race, and in arrests for fo-fetals was proved to be untrue.

It would be interesting to know what the Jockey Club will do if the owner of a horse entered for the Brooklyn Handicap, refuses to accept the Jockey Club's conditions. The owners have said to enter their horses and have lived up to the conditions of the Brooklyn Handicap, and as a consequence have been able to regulations drawn by a body that is believed has no legal existence.

The statement that, when he was in Albany last Saturday, the Secretary of State informed him that the Jockey Club had not been incorporated. If the Brooklyn Jockey Club refuse to allow the owner of a Brooklyn Handicap horse to start his candidate because the Jockey Club's rules had not been lived up to, the Jockey Club will be in a position to owner would have a fine chance to get revenge in a court of law. The Jockey Club stands in the position of being an outsider, and coming in at the eleventh hour, and seeking to compel one party to accept a set of regulations that did not not enter into the original conditions.
The purpose of the Jockey Club in not being incorporated is said to be to prevent the members as a body from being sued, but if John Lambley, James Lambley, Martin Bergen and the other jockeys to whom licenses have not been granted are barred from some suits against the members of the Club, one jockey is known to have contested counsel and to have been informed that the members of the

JOCKEY CLUB CAN BE INDICTED FOR CONSPIRACY.

And that damages can be secured from them. Outside of the facts it is generally known that any one who wishes to go to the trouble of raising the question in court, can make it interesting for the racing associations by testing the constitution-ality of the law.

GRAVESEND, L. I., May 4.—The trainers for the new Jockey Club, the Messrs.
Keene, Hunter and a few others, could have been the racing they received this morning, they would drop Jockey Club affairs quicker than a hot potato.

According to all these racing rules, it will cost us money every time we want to turn around, said one of the trainers. "If the Jockey Club had up of horse owners to reform the turf, but I fail to see where anything has been done except to pass rules to mulct the poorer horse-owners and trainers.
The rich ones can stand the racket all right, but the poor ones will not."

Philip Dwyer had no opinion to express regarding the rules beyond saying that revisions might be made later on.
From the twinkle in his eye, it was evident that he was not greatly impressed by the effort of the new Jockey Club.

The reporter asked what would become of all the fines and the "rake off" of the Jockey Club.

"Well, it is the intention of the Jockey Club, I believe, to lump the surplus into a state fund, and the Jockey Club will Brooklyn, Morris Park or Coney Island.
That will, you see, benefit the horse owner in the end."

Mr. Dwyer said that 1-2-3 betting had been abolished save for the French mutuel. The Jockey Club, he said, would probably adopt the old betting rules with a few changes.

Trainers say the arbitrary rules of this new racing organization will be a curse to the turf. "If the Jockey Club owners to establish another Free Horse Owners' Association. The forfeit rules enough to cause the horse owner to and if they race at unlicensed tracks they are barred forever. According to the Jockey Club, the horse owner can country fair must secure a license for its running races, otherwise those taking part will be boycotted."

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, May 4.— Are they going to trot away from the metropolis with three straight victories? The Quakers, who have been watched the gallus Quakers scamp about in practice play this afternoon. It was a mighty hard thing to contemplate that the Phillies should hit the Giants in the thorax with a three straight blow, and Capt. Johnny Ward has talked to the boys like a major.

"You must get into the game, kids," said he, "and pull one of the chestnuts out of this awful baseball conflagration."

It was a nippingly cool afternoon, and a diabolical one at that. The attendance was encouraging, though, and 2,500 enthusiasts passed within the turnstiles.
The Quakers, who have been scamp-ing about in practice play this afternoon, were New York's turn to do the trick.
Every face had a glad expression, which meant the Quakers were in a mood to fight.

John Ward proposes to make it a gala affair indeed for the opening game with the Quakers here to-morrow. He has had a raft of requests to repeat the quaint match the Baltimore and New York teams have made in the past.

At Baltimore, Ward promised to duplicate that match, and he has engaged a hottentot with melody.

The teams were made up to-day as follows:

New York. Philadelphia.
Murphy, cf. Hamilton, cf.
Van Haltren, cf. Deleahanty, if.
Ward, 1b. Taylor, 1b.
Davis, 2b. Cross, 2b.
Conner, 3b. Clements, c.
Burr, 3b. Ryan, 3b.
Farrell, c. Ryan, 3b.

First Inning.—The gentle Quakers had the first try at the bat and the sturdy New Yorkers threw the ball out of rhythm to keep them from freeing.
and the accommodating Meekin presented him to the Quakers in a mood of a ball for the centre-fielder from Quakerville, for the next instant Meekin caught him here to-morrow. He has had Hallman was lucky in getting his base on a fly ball, Meekin took a reef in his right biceps, but for fact he threw a six-Deleahanty patted the ball into the further end of the left field bleachers.

Hallman scamp home and Deleahanty had a walk-over crossed him on a home run. Thompson went out on an easy bounder to Ward and Meekin stifled himself by throwing him out.

Conner, two runs.
Murphy, the indolent, poked an easy fly to Allen and went out at first. Johnny Ward wasn't flim-flammed on any of Hadlock's offerings, and waited till he got first for a gift.
He ambled to second on a wild pitch.
Burr, a home run, and tried to pifer third. He was caught clean as a hatter, and then Van Haltren lifted a ball, and Deleahanty and that ended it.
No runs.

Second Inning.—Clements, he with the knives and straws, went in to knock the attaching out of the ball, and he did for a minute, until the atomeque Murphy tormented him.

Then Hadlock ripped up another back of the plate and one Farrell scattered, and he threw the ball out to Murphy, and it was that hot that Murphy handled it a bit gingerly, and threw it right over Roger's head.
Meekin made two bases on the misplay.
Meekin didn't like the look in Allen's eye and sent him to first on four balls.
Hamilton banged a heartbreaker along the turf to Van Haltren, and it was a cleanly, amply throwing him out.

the Quakers here to-morrow. He has had a raft of requests to repeat the quaint
match the Baltimore and New York
teams have made in the past.

At Baltimore, Ward promised to duplicate that match, and he has engaged a hottentot with melody.

lows:

New York. Philadelphia.
Murphy, cf. Hamilton, cf.
Van Haltren, cf. Deleahanty, if.
Ward, 1b. Taylor, 1b.
Davis, 2b. Cross, 2b.
Conner, 3b. Clements, c.
Burr, 3b. Ryan, 3b.
Farrell, c. Ryan, 3b.

First Inning.—The gentle Quakers had
the first try at the bat and the sturdy New Yorkers threw the ball out of
rhythm to keep them from freeing.
and the accommodating Meekin presented him to the Quakers in a mood
of a ball for the centre-fielder from Quakerville, for the next instant Meekin
caught him here to-morrow. He has had
on a fly ball, Meekin took a reef in his right biceps, but for fact he threw a six-Deleahanty patted the ball into the
further end of the left field bleachers.

Hallman scamp home and Deleahanty
had a walk-over crossed him on a home run. Thompson went out on an easy bounder to Ward and Meekin stifled
himself by throwing him out.

Conner, two runs.
Murphy, the indolent, poked an
easy fly to Allen and went out at
first. Johnny Ward wasn't flim-flammed on any of Hadlock's offerings, and
waited till he got first for a gift.
He ambled to second on a wild pitch.
Burr, a home run, and tried to
pifer third. He was caught clean as a hatter, and then Van Haltren lifted a ball, and Deleahanty and that ended it.
No runs.

knives and straws, went in to knock the
a
